

NOTTINGHAM AND NOTTS FUCHSIA SOCIETY MAY 2024 NEWSLETTER

JAYNE'S JOTTINGS

I have put up my mum's hanging baskets today (Saturday) in readiness for the Thunderstorms forecast Sunday or Monday! I have also managed to spend time in my own garden, taking off the greenhouse covers and giving the plants a water – discarding many!

I have taken some cuttings of Delta Sarah as a friend is obsessed with this cultivar and wants to plant them all over her garden!

How are your free cuttings? If you are unsure what to do next – bring them along to the meeting, I'm sure someone will be able to advise you.

◀ Most of my fuchsias that I have overwintered look untidy.

However, after clearing away all the weeds and cutting back all dead wood and top dressing – it looks a lot more presentable. ▶

SHOW SCHEDULE 2024

It has now been released. It is on our website. Please note that there is now recognition for the BEST 'Nottingham Jubilee' cultivar in show.

Please also note, that we will accept Green or Brown coloured hanging pots contrary to BFS guidelines due to feedback received from members that they are unable to find green hanging pots.

WANTED

I have been handed a list of cultivars from Lyndon. If any of you have any of the following cultivars and could spare a cutting please let Lyndon know. In fact if anyone would like a certain cultivar, please let me know and I can include your request in this section of the newsletter.

POEM OF THE MONTH

A SAD TAIL by Liz Cowley

A baby squirrel, lovely sight,
the memory still makes me wail –
the bloody cat was chasing it, attracted by its bushy tail.

The squirrel ran, the poor wee thing,
and found a hole within a tree.
One bite, and what an awful sight –
the cat then brought its tail to me.

The tail, of course, was sticking out –
the cat thought it a perfect present.
Of all the gifts I've ever had
that had to be the most unpleasant.
